

Military Space USA 2020 Will Host a Brand-New Pre-Conference Focus Day Dedicated to Disruptive Technology

Mi Reports: The Military Space USA conference will return to Los Angeles to explore space capability across the enterprise, with a focus day

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, March 23, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Military Space USA will return to Los Angeles on June 9th and 10th to discuss US Space capability across the enterprise, including SATCOM, Remote Sensing, PNT, SDA and more, as well as organisational efforts such as SMC 2.0.

There is a growing realisation that future warfighting will likely now occur at least partly in space. As such, SMC is pushing for a space enterprise that moves at EPIC SPEED by connecting industry with government, investing, and delivering capabilities rapidly into the hands of the war fighter.

Given this, the 2020 event will host a brand-new pre-conference Disruptive Technology Focus Day on June 8th, which will provide the perfect setting for innovative solution providers to showcase their latest technologies and developments.
