

NOVARTIS SUPPORTS VETERAN OWNED BUSINESSES BY BECOMING A NVBDC CORPORATE MEMBER

NVBDC welcomes Novartis as their newest Corporate Member

DETROIT, MI, UNITED STATES, March 23, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The National Veterans Business Development Council (NVBDC) welcomes Novartis as their newest Corporate Member. This commitment underscores Novartis support to the NVBDC Certified Service-Disabled Veterans and Veteran Owned Businesses (SD/VOBs), including ongoing effort to enhance outreach to secure SD/VOBs in their procurement opportunities.

“As part of our procurement process, we are committed to a strategy that increases opportunities for qualified diverse suppliers that aligns with our business needs, drives innovation and provides value. Supplier inclusion reflects our diverse patients and customers and creates opportunities and growth in the communities we serve. We proactively seek businesses owned by women, minorities, LGBT, veteran, service-disabled veterans, small disadvantaged businesses, people with disabilities, and HubZone business partners,” explains Paula Glickenhau,

We are always expanding NVBDC opportunities for our Veterans. Find out more about becoming a certified NVBDC SD/VOB”

Brigadier General (ret) Dick Miller, President, NVBDC

Veteran focused Diversity Spending Programs are an $80 billion market in the United States. Other corporations who support the NVBDC Certified SD/VOBs include the 28 member corporations of the Billion Dollar Roundtable. The NVBDC is the only veteran certification organization to meet the Billion Dollar Roundtable (BDR) audit standards and match their mission to drive supplier diversity excellence.

“We are always expanding NVBDC opportunities for our Veterans. Find out more about becoming a certified NVBDC SD/VOB,” said Brigadier General (ret) Dick Miller, President NVBDC.
