

WHY THE RICH ARE STILL CHOOSING VACATION RENTALS DURING COVID 19

Clients escaping to the tropics during turbulent times.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, March 20, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The health and safety of your family and loved ones are the most important things right now. Everybody wants to make the right and ethical choices. While many people are staying at home and self-isolating, many high net individuals are choosing a luxury vacation rental or private islands to spend their time during the worst of the crisis. There are many reasons for this.

1. Luxury villas have plenty of space and facilities such as pools, gyms, cinema rooms, gardens and games rooms
2. There is no sharing of communal areas as is the case in hotels
3. It is possible to self-isolate
4. It is possible to have groceries and all medical needs delivered to the door.
5. Villas are much less claustrophobic, especially the beachfront villas, private islands and villas with expansive views.
6. You can choose to cook for yourself.
7. There is no need to mingle with other tourists or local people
8. Effective housekeeping practices are immediate and adjusted according to the needs and requests of guests (eco-friendly, hypoallergenic, etc.).

Besides, there is much speculation that Covid 19 doesn't thrive as well in warmer tropical climates. Mohammad Sajadi, associate professor of medicine at the Institute of Human Virology at the UMSON, said it appears that the virus spreads less quickly once the temperatures rise above 54 degrees Fahrenheit (12 degrees Celsius) and higher. So far the Tropics have far fewer cases than the rest of the world.
