ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, March 20, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The coronavirus pandemic is affecting every facet of life. Even book clubs are being affected with many cancelling their monthly or weekly meetings or doing the meetings online via Skype or Facetime. Recognizing this new reality, Lance J. LoRusso, author of the critically acclaimed mystery book, Hunting of Men announces that he will be available to book clubs via Skype or Facetime to discuss Hunting of Men and what makes a good mystery or police procedural. Additionally, LoRusso is announcing discounts for book clubs that purchase Hunting of Men. The suspenseful, carefully crafted, Hunting of Men is the first in the Blue Mystery book series by LoRusso that features detective Johnny Till.

"These are unprecedented times with the coronavirus pandemic," said Lance J. LoRusso, author of Hunting of Men. "Books throughout the years have brought people together and created enjoyment. Book clubs throughout the nation are attempting to do this even during this crisis with virtual meetings and I hope to work with these clubs in providing entertainment through Hunting of Men."

In Hunting of Men, LoRusso draws upon his diverse law enforcement background that saw him work the street, serve as a trainer, hostage negotiator, and an investigator. The book launches the career of central character, Johnny Till who will be the key character in all the Blue Mystery books. The book's title, Hunting of Men, is drawn from Ernest Hemingway's quote, "There is no hunting like the hunting of man, and those who have hunted armed men long enough and liked it, never care for anything else thereafter." The mystery in Hunting of Men focuses upon a cold case murder.

Johnny Till is a force to be reckoned with as a new homicide detective for the Lawler County Police Department. As tradition demands, on his first day on the job, Till pulls a cold case file to investigate. The file in question is one that has haunted the department and community for years: the cold-blooded murder of Officer Michael Dunlap, gunned down in the black of night some twenty years earlier.

Now, in order to solve the murder and heal the victims left behind, Till must reopen old wounds and retrace the final days of Dunlap's life. The journey will lead him down a rabbit hole to a darker, more sinister conspiracy, one that threatens to steal the lives of children around the world. In order to close this cold case, Till must not only come into his new role as a homicide detective, but face his own fears to truly become a hunter of men.

Parallax, written to provide engaging as well as accurate entertainment, is a series of fictional stories based on the harsh realities faced by law enforcement officers in the performance of their duties and stories recounted to LoRusso by officers over the years. Peacemaking was LoRusso's first entry into the world of fiction, follows the journey of a police officer, Scotty Painter, in the aftermath of a shooting.
