“The coronavirus is changing everything about daily life, including wine. But just because we’re staying home doesn’t mean we can’t still enjoy great wine. We wanted to reach out and offer some fun to wine lovers at home,” said Greg Martellotto, owner of Big Hammer Wines. “With our Quarantine Wine Club, wine lovers get a curated pack of wines at a great price shipped directly to their doorstep.”

This introductory offer for new customers includes 6 bottles of premium, delicious wines that are ready to drink.

The 6-pack is customizable for white, red, rosé, or mixed wine preferences and includes free shipping.

Big Hammer Wine’s intrepid tasting team, who sample thousands of wines every year, have chosen a unique selection of wines to delight wine lovers while in self-quarantine.

Because of self-isolation, people can’t travel or go out to eat. But they can whip up a savory dinner and open a nice bottle of top-quality wine to complement the food.

They can call a local delivery service to pick up food from a favorite restaurant and drop it on the front porch. Check this list of food delivery services offering specials or discounts.

Stay at home wine drinkers can indulge a love of travel and adventure at home with wines of the world. They can taste from among the most in-demand wineries in California and around the globe, including wines not available at local retailers.

Enjoy a fun wine tasting experience without leaving home. Order the wine, order the food, sit back and relax.

For those interested in natural wines lower in sugar and alcohol, BHW Real Wine Club has wines from small producers employing sustainable farming practices.

The Quarantine Wine Club offer is for new customers and includes 6 bottles of premium, delicious wines that are ready to drink. The 6-pack is customizable for white, red, rosé, or mixed wine preferences and includes free shipping.
