

Point of Care Network (POCN) Launches America's Top NP and PA 2020 Nominations

PARSIPPANY, NJ, UNITED STATES, March 24, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Point of Care Network (POCN), the largest community of nurse practitioners (NPs) and physician assistants (PAs) in the United States, has opened nominations for America's Top NPs and America's Top PAs 2020. These annual programs recognize, reward, and celebrate accomplishments of advanced clinicians in numerous therapeutic specialties throughout the nation.

Nominations are made by peers including NPs, PAs, and certified nurse educators (CNEs) recognizing demonstrated excellence in quality and delivery of care, professional and practice development, and community outreach and involvement.

Recent statistics indicate that PAs had more than 400 million patient interactions last year while an estimated 1.06 billion patient visits were made to NPs for treatment.”

Richard Zwickel, CEO and Founder of POCN

“The role of NPs and PAs continues to escalate in delivery of proper healthcare in America,” explains Richard Zwickel, CEO and Founder of POCN. “Recent statistics indicate that PAs had more than 400 million patient interactions last year while an estimated 1.06 billion patient visits were made to NPs for treatment.”
