In Charlotte, North Carolina USA hosted by the CEO-Founder Every Girl Wins Institute Dr. Christine Kozachuk and Board Member Donna Lee Reed reported, We had a large crowd of women discussing different topics from education to child brides. The questions where based on what actions would they take for example; What action would you take if a young lady that's pregnant told you she wants to drop out of school? A few of those actions that they discussed are making sure they have the resources, encouragement, finding other alternative, mentor and stick with them to assure they succeed. Dr. Dorothy McGuire stated help them with mindset transformation letting them know you have not failed you made a mistake let's get back up and keep moving. Letting them know that their baby is not going to stop them from succeeding.

The discussion followed an award ceremony Women of Worth Award went to Dr. Dorothy McGuire, the Guiding Light Award went to Sandra L. Gray-Springs , the Unsung Hero Award went to Paula Brinkley for the work they have done with the women and children in our community.

The reports from Canada, Uganda, Guyana and Sudan where equally exciting and because of the International Every Girl Wins Day many lives will never be the same.

Dr. Christine Kozachuk states, "I am so excited to receive such amazing reports from all the different countries that celebrated the first annual International Every Girl Wins Day."

The Every Girl Wins Institute was created based on the life skills and observations of women of the world from the founder. What she has experienced is the beliefs of women are holding them back from creating the life they deserve. Over and over again, she would hear women talk about
