

Military PNT 2020 Postponed to October, Following COVID-19 Concerns

SMi reports: Following concerns over COVID-19 and public gatherings, the Military PNT conference will now commence in October 2020.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, March 30, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SMi Group's Military PNT conference, which was scheduled to convene in London on 18th – 19th May 2020, has been rescheduled to 19th – 20th October, following concerns over COVID-19 and public gatherings.

The two-day conference will highlight key topics within satellite navigation technology, including PNT resilience, legal frameworks, a case study analysis on GNSS outages and how warfighters operate in denied and degraded environments. Delegates will also have the opportunity to network with senior military leaders, government stakeholders and innovative companies within the satellite technology domain.

The poster features a central image of a satellite in orbit above the Earth's horizon. The text is white on a dark background. In the top right corner, there is a logo for SMi with the tagline 'LINKING BUSINESS AND INFORMATION'. The main text reads 'Military PNT' in a large font, followed by '19th - 20th October 2020 | London, UK'. At the bottom, the website 'www.militarypnt.com' is displayed in a light blue bar, and below that, 'Military PNT - October 2020' is written in a smaller font.

To register for the conference or to find out more, interested parties should visit: <http://www.militarypnt.com/EINpr5>

Conference Highlights:

- Understand how PNT constellations are developing procurement priorities and requirements for the next generation of global navigation systems
- Hear military briefings from the US DoD on the present and future of US PNT
- Hear key updates from commercial solution providers building cutting edge technologies with international partners
- Understand how the UK's PNT landscape will look in a post-Galileo environment
- Listen to the needs of the warfighter and how they operate in denied and degraded environments
- Meet and network with senior military leaders, innovative companies and government

stakeholders from the PNT domain
