

Fran Briggs Releases Best of Spring Reading, 2020

List includes authors from Canada to USA; to Asia and the U.K.

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, March 27, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For book lovers, every spring is an exciting one. American Journalist, Fran Briggs recently recognized ten books as among the best of spring reading, 2020. The annual promotion puts the spotlight on a select group of emerging and established authors from Los Angeles, to New York; to the U.K., and Asia.

The spring reading list is organized by title, publisher, author, a short synopsis of each book, and a link for additional information and purchase. Genres include health and wellness; science-fiction; children's; mystery; humor; spiritual, and suspense.

"Every quarter, I share ten books which depict talent and diversity within the literary world," explained Briggs. "The list includes novice and best selling authors, alike. It pays homage to the authors' vision; subject; creativity; impact and influence," she concluded.

Below are the ten selections. The numerical order does not coincide with ranking.

1. Drau: Blood (Ingram Spark) by Elizabeth Stephens. The disgraced House of Dhal-Marrah may be able to prevent the coming storm but to do so they will need to face an enemy whose hatred knows no bounds. <http://www.esstephensauthor.co.uk/drau-blood>

2. From the Barrio to the Board Room: Second Edition (Writers of the Round Table Press) by Dr. Robert Renteria. The author's journey from East L.A. and gang and drug life to becoming VP of a publicly traded company, owner of his own businesses and now his work as a civic leader, empowering our nation's youth to stay in school, out of gangs and off drugs.
