

ITsavvy Receives Top Tech Solution Provider Honor

ITsavvy just announced that, for the fifth year in a row, it was included on CRN's list of the top technology solution providers in North America.

ADDISON, ILL., U.S., March 30, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ITsavvy, one of the fastest growing complete technology solution providers in the U.S., just announced that, for the fifth year in a row, it was included on CRN's list of the top technology solution providers in North America. The Tech Elite 250 is comprised of organizations that have differentiated themselves as premier solution providers, earning multiple, top-level IT certifications, specializations, and partner program designations from the industry's most prestigious technology providers including Amazon, Cisco, Dell, Google, HPE, IBM, Juniper, Microsoft, NetApp, Nutanix, Oracle, Pure Storage and VMware.

ITsavvy President and CEO Mike Theriault said, "We have always known that the primary key to our success has been outstanding client service. We carefully choose all of our partners based not only on the products they provide, but also their service and support. All of this allows us to deliver the best possible complete client solutions in the industry."

CRN is a Channel Company brand. The Channel Company enables breakthrough IT channel performance through dominant media, engaging events, expert consulting and education and innovative marketing services and platforms.

Channel Company CEO Bob Skelley said, "Solution providers that continue to pursue vendor certifications and extend their skill sets across various technologies and IT practices are proving their commitment to delivering the greatest business value to their customers through an incomparable level of service. Our CRN Tech Elite 250 list recognizes leading solution providers with expansive technical knowledge and esteemed certifications for exactly that reason."

To compile the annual list, the Channel Company's research group and CRN editors identify the most client-beneficial technical certifications in the North American IT channel. Companies who have obtained these designations—which enable solution providers to deliver premium products, services and support—are then selected from a much larger pool of applicants.
