

Egyptian Painter Arafaat to Donate Proceeds of a 1-Million Dollars Artwork Painting to the Chest Diseases Hospital Egypt

Egyptian painter Arafaat participates #ArtCanHelp cause on social media for Corona virus solidarity

DUBAI, DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, March 31, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Carrying the responsibility is a National duty in those urgent circumstances in which the people of the beloved Egypt must join hands to overcome the current crisis of the Coronavirus, which has claimed the lives of about 8,000 people in the world since the beginning of the discovery of the virus, as per WHO latest report yesterday.

The Egyptian painter Arafaat is currently presenting his distinguished works on his new own website and through various social media portals to highlight the depth of cultural diversity of the Egyptian people's mainstream classes and the emotional interaction that Arafaat experienced with all the dark conditions that have passed through Egypt during the last ten years.

The Egyptian artist, Arafaat, highlights the most important stages of his artistic life, which was reflected on his paints through his resistance to religious rule and the destructors of Egyptian culture, "The terrorist Muslim-Brotherhood", and also through the resistance of terrorist sponsors in the beloved land of Sinai claiming religious ownership of Egypt.

Within the framework of that National responsibility of the conditions in Egypt in resisting the spread of the Corona virus, the Egyptian artist, painter Arafaat, has decided to donate the proceeds of selling his painting, called COVID-19 Solidarity, for 1-Million Dollars to the Chest Diseases hospital in Cairo Egypt to renew medical devices and various equipment that will provide the patient with a world class medical service keeping up with the latest scientific methods in diagnosing and treating chest diseases.

Unique, Unparalleled and Utmost Egyptian Figurative Abstract & Impressionism.

"Arafaat", 1952- establishes an elevated positioning that other Middle East artists can not match. Arafaat does not repeat the artwork twice because the motive of each painting is unique and aspiring from the deep roots of the Egyptian culture. Expressions are at its extreme whilst curating a paint or an installation to reflect a social status, a response to a status-quo, or an intimidation to a collective behaviour. Arafaat does not create multi-copies or commissioned artwork.

Certificate of Authenticity for the artwork is registered by the official notary office of Egypt and registered in the Ministry of Justice of Egypt. All artwork is signed by artist "Arafaat" himself with Acrylic on Canvas.

(Arafaat From Egypt) official online gallery enables Artwork Collectors to establish secure transactions to own Arafaat Artwork through secure payments, cryptocurrencies and bank transfer.

Arafaat is an Egyptian artist based in Cairo and Dubai.
