They are actively moving towards schools and kids who need a basic need met: new shoes that fit their growing feet. It seems so simple and yet having "shoes that fit" is a privilege that many kids don't get to experience. Kershaw's Challenge considers it an honor to help Shoes that Fit provide for kids in LA and Dallas." -ELLEN AND CLAYTON KERSHAW

We are so grateful to the Kershaw Challenge for helping children in need here in the United States and investing in our future -- our children."

Amy Fass, Shoes That Fit CEO

"One in five children in the United States live in poverty, and shoes are one of the most expensive items for low-income families to provide. When families have to choose between putting food on the table or buying new shoes for school, you can imagine that food wins every time. The simple gift of a pair of shoes can increase a child's confidence, attendance and performance at school, and we are so thankful that Kershaw's Challenge is taking the time to make such a positive impact on these kids." AMY FASS – Executive Director, Shoes That Fit
