

UniMinuto donates 1,500 computers to help vulnerable students during the Covid-19 crisis in Colombia

BOGOTA, DC, COLOMBIA, April 7, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Colombian university UniMinuto announced the donation of 1,500 computers aimed to help most vulnerable students continue their online education during the Covid-19 crisis. Colombia is currently under mandatory quarantine that forces academic institutions continue their curriculum online.

These students represent 1% of the university population. Among the beneficiaries are diverse communities including rural, afrocolombian and indigenous people.

“This contribution will be directed towards most vulnerable segments of students, which are struggling to deal with the effect of Covid-19. Our priority is to guarantee quality education regardless of the format, and this computers are crucial tools to help them take advantages of virtual education”, said Harold Castilla, Rector UniMinuto.

UNIMINUTO Colombia

“

Our priority is to guarantee quality education regardless of the format, and this computers are crucial tools to help them take advantage of virtual education”

*Harold Castilla, Rector
UniMinuto*

UniMinuto is the largest university in the country with +110,000 students and +70% nationwide coverage. Is part of the Minuto de Dios, created by the eudist priest and current Servant of God, Rafael García-Herreros, with a mission of leverage transformation, entrepreneurship and social development from education. Its educational model has been brought to the Ivory Coast in Africa with the African Eudist Technological University Institution - IUTEA.

MARINE MORE
PRENSA UNIMINUTO
+57 316 6948450

email us here

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

Twitter

Harold Castilla cjm, UNIMINUTO

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases. © 1995-2020 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.