

Copper Mobile Announces Free 6-Week Training Program

Free Technology Industry Training Program

DALLAS, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, April 7, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Laid off? Start your new career in Technology with a 6-week free training program from Copper Mobile. Ranked among DFW's Top 100 Places to Work 2019, Copper Mobile is launching a new initiative aimed at helping recently laid off workers to transition into a tech career. This free 6-week training program also enables learning by getting involved in live industry projects. Participants with these newly acquired tech skills are thus enabled to work from home in this new post-COVID world that we will be living in.

START YOUR NEW TECH CAREER

Learn from industry experts and have an opportunity for an internship or even a full time role through this training program. Experience live training from the Copper Mobile team in 2-hour sessions, three times a week, plus a 2-hour Q&A session after every training.

Four training areas include:

- Strategy & Design
- Business Analysis
- Development
- Sales & Marketing

The tech space is poised to emerge as a high growth sector as digital transformation is inevitable while businesses learn to practice social distancing. Through this industry training program, we are enabling a new talent pool to acquire the necessary skills for delivering digital solutions to the world.
