TOKYO, JAPAN, April 15, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Global IP Research and Consulting services provider Sagacious IP has announced the appointment of Dr Vinit BAPAT as an Advisor to the company in Japan. Dr. BAPAT brings more than 25 years of IP experience in Japan to the Sagacious IP Japan team.

Dr. BAPAT is a registered Indian Patent Agent and is renowned amongst the Japanese IP community for his expertise on IP-related matters in India.

He has been a visiting professor at Kanazawa Institute of Technology (KIT) for 14 years. Dr BAPAT, an esteemed member of APAA, AIPPI, JTA and NIPTA, has been teaching courses on Indian Patents, Designs, and Trademarks at the e-Learning portal of Japan Patent Attorney Association (JPAA).

He has also been teaching a course on Indian Patent Law & Practice at Japan Intellectual Property (Owners)

Association (JIPA) for four years. He is also well recognized amongst the Japanese IP community for his book titled "Indian Patent Practice Handbook", written entirely in Japanese.

Tarun Kumar Bansal, President Sagacious IP, who also directly overlooks the company's Japan expansion, said: "We are very excited to have someone as reputed as Dr BAPAT, onboard Sagacious Japan. Dr. BAPAT will be mentoring our Japan team on various aspects of running and growing business in Japan including creation of new services/solutions, strategies, processes, policies and positioning. Dr. BAPAT will also represent us in front of Japanese customers, helping Sagacious better understand Japanese companies' perspective / requirements and making sure Japanese conglomerates, MSMEs and IP Firms better relate to Sagacious' offerings."
