

R4G to Fund Project Kids Get Paid to Eat and Write 100 Restaurant Reviews in LA

Staffing agency, Recruiting for Good is funding dining delivered home; so kids can enjoy fun weekend gigs to write reviews of LA's Best Food in the Hood.

SANTA MONICA, CA, UNITED STATES, April 15, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Recruiting for Good (R4G) is funding fun community project, 'Kids Get Paid to Eat.'

According to Recruiting for Good, Fun Advocate+Founder, Carlos Cymerman, "Our fun goal is to get kids to review 100 restaurants by July 1st, 2020. LA kids enjoy fun foodie weekend gigs to write a review of their favorite food (restaurant and dish). We fund the best food in the hood to be delivered home. Kids learn leadership skills, positive life values, and work habits."

How Funnest Weekend Gig for Kids Work

1. Recruiting for Good Founder, Carlos speaks with parent about project purpose, and kid's responsibilities.
2. Recruiting for Good pays for food to be delivered to kid's home; kid enjoys food and writes review in 15 minutes.

“

Recruiting for Good is Funding the Funnest Foodie Weekend Gigs for Kids to Learn Life Values, and Work Habits.”

Carlos Cymerman, Fun Advocate+Founder, Recruiting for Good

3. Kids who do a great job, and respond in a timely manner; get more fun foodie writing gigs.

Carlos Cymerman adds, "We love to expand our fun project throughout LA, and inspire more kids to participate and review restaurants. There are close to 30,000 restaurants in LA; that can certainly use kids' help today."
