

Looking for ways to keep your kids engaged with reading and having fun?

Join Reading Roadmap afterschool program coordinators for structured read-alouds of popular children's books.

OTTAWA, KANSAS, UNITED STATES, April 17, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Join Reading Roadmap Program Coordinators from afterschool programs every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 1 pm Central Standard Time (CST) for a new Structured Read-Aloud video featuring a popular, award-winning children's book.

What is a Structured Read-Aloud (SRA)?

A SRA involves an active reading of a book featuring a back-and-forth interaction through a discussion as well as engaging activities. A SRA includes vocabulary introduction and reinforcement as well as opportunities to strengthen comprehension skills. For more information about structured read-alouds see: <https://ortongillinghamonlinetutor.com/the-importance-of-interactive-read-alouds/>

Who can participate?

Children grades Kindergarten through third, and even their parents!
