

Peter Schieffelin Nyberg and the Camino Community Center Strive to Support Locals Amid COVID-19 Crisis

As a strong supporter of his community, Peter Schieffelin Nyberg wishes to help alleviate the increased stress the current pandemic has had on local residents.

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES, April 20, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CFO Peter Schieffelin Nyberg is proud to announce that the Camino Community Center will continue to show their unwavering support during the COVID-19 pandemic by expanding their pantry hours from two to four days per week and offering essential healthcare services.

Peter Schieffelin Nyberg Is Helping His Community Amidst COVID19

Due to unforeseen closures, many low-income families are struggling to obtain basic necessities amid public health concerns. Peter and the team at the Camino Center are doing everything in their power to equip individuals and families with supplies they require during this time.

Offering a wide range of services, the Camino Center also has referral access to Coronavirus test kits and related supplies including, hand sanitizer, face masks, etc.

"We will be expanding our clinic hours to accommodate those in need of medical care," says Peter "we wish to remain a constant for those in need."

While working to support the community, Peter also ensures locals that they are taking all safety precautions to mitigate the spread of the virus, through sanitation and social distancing measures.
