

Cinco de Mayo Creative Drawing Contest Rewards Kids SaMo's Best Mexican Food

Recruiting for Good is sponsoring fun creative drawing contest for elementary school students in Santa Monica, and reward the best food in the hood.

SANTA MONICA, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, April 22, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Recruiting for Good (R4G) is funding fun community project for middle school students, 'Kids Get Paid to Eat.' And is sponsoring creative drawing contest 'Must Love Mexican' to inspire elementary student participation, celebrate Cinco de Mayo, and reward the funnest entries with dining gift cards to Santa Monica's Best Mexican restaurants.

According to Recruiting for Good, Fun Advocate+Founder, Carlos Cymerman, "I am Mexican American, and before I was a recruiter, I taught ESL in an Elementary School and Spanish in a Pre-K School. I am not your typical recruiter, for the past 10 years, I have been immersed in leadership development work to find my purpose; and combine it with my passion for teaching kids fun practical life lessons (to love life and work) thru creative expression...And I make learning super fun by rewarding delish food too."

The Purpose of the Contest is to Enliven Kids

Inspiring Hearts and Minds thru Passion + Purpose + Play

Kids that participate and use creative expression:

1. Become optimistic change perspective on life.
2. Fill their heart with energy, fun, and joy.
3. Tap the power of imagination and possibility.
