

Self-drive Car Rental in Emerging Countries Market 2020 Global Analysis, Opportunities, Growth and Forecast to 2025

This report covers market characteristics, size and growth, segmentation, regional breakdowns, competitive landscape, market shares, trends and strategies

PUNE, MAHARASTRA, INDIA, April 23, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A car rental, hire car, or car hire agency is a company that rents automobiles for short periods of time, generally ranging from a few hours to a few weeks. It is often organized with numerous local branches (which allow a user to return a vehicle to a different location), and primarily located near airports or busy city areas and often complemented by a website allowing online reservations.

Sedans are the most preferred rented cars in the emerging countries and accounted for the maximum market size. Sedans range between hatchbacks and SUVs and offer better comfort and driving experience than hatchbacks as they are powered by bigger and powerful engines. Also, the extra boot space in sedans is an extra advantage especially when people rent them out for long trips. Customers prefer to undertake long road trips on sedans as they are more cost-effective than SUVs.

China dominated the market and will continue to maintain the lead throughout the forecast period. The major factors driving the self-driving car rental market in China are the rising urbanization rates, government regulations regarding owning private cars, and the gap between license holders and non-car owners.
