

COASTAL KIDS HOME CARE'S "YOU CAN'T QUARANTINE KINDNESS" SHIRT DESIGN CONTEST HAS A WINNER

Shirt purchases will help fund CKHC's in-home care for medically fragile kids.

MONTE SERENO, CA, USA, May 7, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- WHAT:

Coastal Kids Health Care is hosting a press conference announcing the winners to their "You Can't Quarantine Kindness" t-shirt design contest. They selected three winners from ages between 0-21, where the winning designs will be featured on an official CKHC shirt. Shirt purchases will help fund CKHC's in-home care for medically fragile kids.

CKHC's resources have been stretched tremendously due to COVID-19. Hospitals around the Bay Area are doing everything possible to avoid having children in their facilities. CKHC is taking on more children than they ever have before to help keep them safe in their homes.

"We may all experience different things, but we all deserve kindness. Showing kindness and being genuine in every interaction you are a part of can have a larger impact than you realize." — Kelli Keady

"Kindness is important right now because people are struggling, and we need to help them." — Elise Rosenthal

Kindness is important right now because people are struggling, and we need to help them.”

Elise Rosenthal, one of the design winners

"When people wear masks you can't tell if they are smiling. Hopefully, these shirts will make people smile and remind everyone to be kind during this very difficult time." — Terry Downing (mother of a child being cared for by CKHC)
