

Dr. Randall Gibb Featured in Exclusive Interviews

Two publications recently highlighted Dr. Randall Gibb's experience as a Gynecologic Oncologist

BILLINGS, MONTANA, UNITED STATES, May 7, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr. Randall Gibb was recently featured in two exclusive interviews for Ideamensch and Inspirery. The interviews highlighted his extensive career as a Gynecologic Oncologist and healthcare administrator.

Dr. Randall Gibb has over 25 years of experience in the medical profession. Throughout his career, Dr. Gibb has saved many lives and introduced new clinics throughout Montana.

In his interviews, Dr. Gibb shared why he chose to become a doctor and why he chose to specialize in Gynecologic Oncology.

"My career in medical administration was an evolutionary process," said Dr. Randall Gibb in his interview with Ideamensch.

"When people who are not physicians run a hospital or medical clinic, they don't understand as well what it is to care for a patient. They don't understand the bond that is created between the physician and their patient. I believe that if we are going to improve the healthcare industry, a physician has to be included in a hospitals' administration."

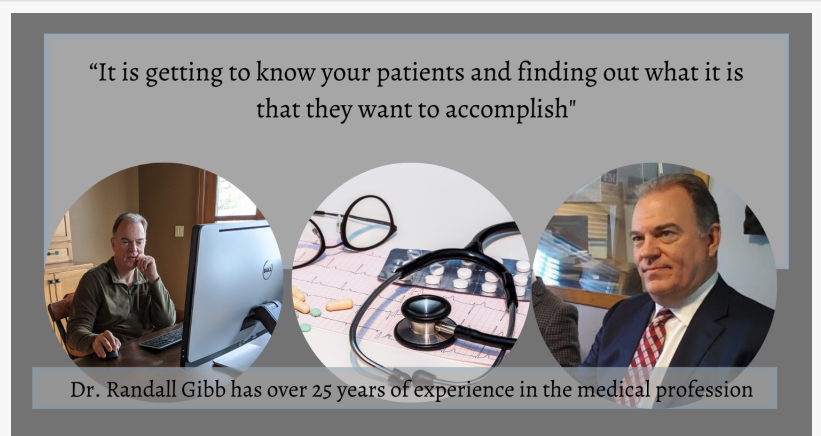

He noted that the relationship between doctors and patients is very special.

"It is getting to know your patients and finding out what it is that they want to accomplish, and what their hopes and dreams are. They share all of that with you," said Dr. Gibb in his interview with Inspirery.
