

Sergey Taitler Speaks Out About The Impact COVID-19 Is Having On The Roofing Industry

Sergey Taitler's company, All American Exterior Solutions, is continuing to support his clients throughout this time

LAKE ZURICH, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, May 8, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sergey Taitler, general manager All American Solutions says that despite the enormous impact of COVID-19 on the roofing industry, his company All American Exterior Solutions is continuing to support their customers during this difficult time of self isolation and social distancing.

Originally from Ukraine, Sergey Taitler took over the family business, All American Roofing, in 1998 after the death of his father. He eventually renamed the company All American Exterior Solutions to reflect the expansion of the company's services.

Throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, several industries have been impacted. While the roofing industry has not been hit as hard as others, notes Sergey Taitler, All American Solutions has taken action by keeping in constant communication with their staff, ensuring everyone is healthy and available for work. In addition, Sergey and his team have provided additional cleaning supplies and safety masks for their teams while on the job.

"At All American Exterior Solutions, we are continuing to support our clients the best we can, while taking all necessary safety precautions," says Sergey Taitler.

"We are proud to serve Illinois and we will continue to do so when this crisis is over."

The state of Illinois recently announced it would introduce a five-phase reopening plan, with a stay-at-home order in effect until at least May 29th.
