

Kehoe Law Firm Investigating Claims on Behalf of Purchasers or Owners of Recalled MALM or Other IKEA Chests or Dressers

PHILADELPHIA, PA, USA, May 12, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Kehoe Law Firm, P.C. is making consumers aware that a voluntary product recall notice was issued on June 28, 2016 and again on November 21, 2017 regarding MALM and other IKEA chests and dressers that do not comply with the requirements of the U.S. voluntary industry standard (ASTM F2057-14). The children's and adult chests and dressers, according to the recall, are unstable if they are not properly anchored to the wall, posing serious tip-over and entrapment hazards that can result in injuries or death to children. The recalled children's and adult chests and dressers include the MALM 3-drawer, 4-drawer, 5-drawer and three 6-drawer models, as well as other non-MALM models.

Kehoe Law Firm, P.C.

Kehoe Law Firm is investigating claims on behalf of U.S consumers who purchased or owned a MALM or other IKEA chest or dresser included in IKEA's product recall to determine whether IKEA's product recall was effective, including whether IKEA fulfilled its promise of cash refunds to consumers who purchased or obtained recalled MALM and other IKEA chests and dressers.

U.S. purchasers or owners of recalled MALM or non-MALM chests or dressers obtained from IKEA that have been denied a cash refund for the recalled chests or dressers are encouraged to contact Kehoe Law Firm, P.C. by sending an e-mail to info@kehoelawfirm.com.
