

Through “drive-in” and “curbside” ceremonies, Charis Bible College will celebrate 2020 graduates on May 13 and May 16

All graduates will be encouraged to decorate their vehicles

WOODLAND PARK, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, May 12, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Charis Bible College will celebrate its graduates this year in a unique and fun way while also staying in compliance with Teller County and Colorado’s “Safer-at-Home” guidelines.

The annual graduation of its second- and third-year classes will be conducted as a drive-in and curbside ceremony.

Class and faculty speakers will give their speeches from the Charis Bible College’s auditorium while implementing social distancing measures. The rest of the graduates will remain outside in the parking lot to watch the livestream in their vehicles.

After the commencement is finished, graduates will then drive a pre-determined route to pick up their certificates.

All graduates will be encouraged to decorate their vehicles for the festivities.

On both May 13 and May 16, graduations will be held from 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
