

My Fulfillment Company Provides Outstanding Order Management and Fulfillment Services during the Coronavirus Pandemic

Despite the coronavirus pandemic, the team at My Fulfillment Company continues to provide amazing warehousing, packaging, and other order fulfillment services.

MARIETTA, GA, UNITED STATES, May 15, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fears and concerns regarding coronavirus and COVID-19 are still high in the US and around the world, and in many areas, it seems that packagers and warehouses are struggling to keep up with the increased demand. My Fulfillment Company, an order management and fulfillment company located in Marietta, Georgia, continues to provide outstanding, timely service to its clients.

My Fulfillment Company offers a wide range of services for ecommerce-based businesses of all sizes, including dropshippers. These services include picking and packing, expedited and same-day shipping, customized packing lists, inventory and order reporting, warehousing, kitting and assembly, branding with marketing flyers and inserts, returns processing, and much, much more. The company tailors its services to each client's needs, which means there's no standard pricing – companies only pay for the services they need.

In today's day and age, companies of all sizes choose to outsource their inventory storage and order fulfillment for many reasons. First and foremost, handing these jobs off to experts not only gives business owners more time to focus on pressing matters, but also ensures that customers receive the best possible end-to-end service. Often, new ecommerce businesses start out fairly slow, but as orders start to pick up, they find themselves completely overwhelmed with orders, inventory management, returns requests, and more. My Fulfillment Company is an order management partner with a fully-staffed warehouse that can provide you with all of these services so that you can focus on growth.

Though My Fulfillment Company works with businesses in numerous industries and niches, they specialize in small electronics and accessories, health and beauty, and vitamins and nutritional support. Their top-notch warehousing facilities are secure and climate controlled, ensuring that even the most delicate products are stored optimally. At any time, their clients may choose to expand their operations, and My Fulfillment Company is there to provide additional warehousing space or any additional services that may be required.
