The Foodie Games...Kids Participate in Creative Competitions to Win Entry to VIP Foodie Parties + Shopping Goodies + Exclusive Mom Pampering Rewards”

Carlos Cymerman, Fun Advocate+Founder, Recruiting for Good

According to Recruiting for Good, Fun Advocate+Founder, Carlos Cymerman, "Building on our success of Kids Get Paid to Eat social project; we decided to create fun competitions that inspired participation for kids that love creative writing, drawing, and photography. The Foodie Games will be a delightful way for kids to impress their parents, peers, and even themselves. We love to teach kids, real life values thru game play; in life, if you want a great paying job, you need to compete for it."

How to Participate in The Foodie Games

Competitions will be for kids between 5-15 years old; who live in Los Angeles.

Kids Participate in Creative Competitions to Win Entry to VIP Foodie Parties + Shopping Goodies + Exclusive Pampering Mom Rewards

1. Kids will create all the content to compete (based on an honor system).
2. Creative competitions will be age appropriate to create equal playing field.
3. Every couple of weeks, we will come out with a new competition, and new reward.

First competition (photography contest) starts on May 18th to June 19th; winners will be invited to special 4th of July Donut Party for Good in Santa Monica.

Carlos Cymerman adds, "Where did the inspiration for the Foodie Games come from? Every 4 years, I go to the Olympics. And unfortunately, the Japan Games were postponed; so I decided to create a whole slew of creative competitions, and challenges. The Foodie Games will be co-created with kids who participated in Kids Get Paid to Eat social project. The Games...will be unique creative experiences, and the awards will also be certified fresh. The games are cost free for competing kids. Kids just use their create talent to compete, participate, and win."
