Former FEMA Director James Lee Witt, Small Business and Entrepreneurship Council President & CEO Karen Kerrigan, and former Rep. Patrick Murphy (FL) co-chair a new, bipartisan and nationwide COVID-19 Legal & Government Affairs Task Force, powered by 202works. The Task Force helps 1,000 businesses and nonprofits weather the COVID-19 storm by more effectively navigating complex legal, regulatory, and public policy waters.

This is a vital project as nothing is more important to the country's economy, national security, and prosperity than the health of our small and mid-size business economy.”

Tom Dunlap, Partner, Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig

“If the COVID-19 crisis has shown us one thing, it's that America depends on a steady hand of leadership in an emergency,” the Hon. Rep. Murphy said. “Many small businesses have never had to engage policymakers before or lack experience with nuanced local, state, and federal policy matters. Navigating the legal and policy world is complex and time-consuming, which makes the 202works Task Force and firms offering pro bono services through the platform even more important in getting private-sector leaders the support they need to weather the COVID19 storm.”

Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig is honored to be a part of a team of experts, offering pro bono services to assist private-sector leaders and businesses in retaining jobs and deploying critical goods and services to expedite a nationwide recovery. Tom Dunlap, a partner at Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig, said this about their involvement in the program: "This is a vital project as nothing is more important to the country's economy, national security, and prosperity than the health of our small and mid-size business economy."

Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig will be a part of a network of participating law firms that will provide pro bono support to businesses that have been affected by the pandemic.

DOING BETTER LAW Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig partner and former SBA and Veterans Administration Presidential appointee, Cherylyn Harley LeBon, explained that "Small and mid-sized businesses are the backbone of America. They provide jobs and security that will power our nation forward as we recover from a pandemic that has hurt so many citizens. DBL wants no business to be left behind, and we're focused on helping them survive and thrive in the days and months ahead."
