May 21 OIAC Virtual Conference

The poster features a network of glowing orange nodes connected by white lines, with a hand holding a smartphone in the foreground. The text is arranged in a clean, modern layout with orange and white color accents.

The conference will focus on the victims of repression in Iran as well as those who have lost their lives due to the COVID-19 pandemic, largely as a result of the criminal indifference, utter incompetence and systemic corruption of the clerical regime. Amid the pandemic, the regime has heightened its external aggression, testing of missiles, and support for regional proxies, threatening neighboring countries. Meanwhile, the theocracy has escalated executions, arrests of dissidents, and murders of prisoners.

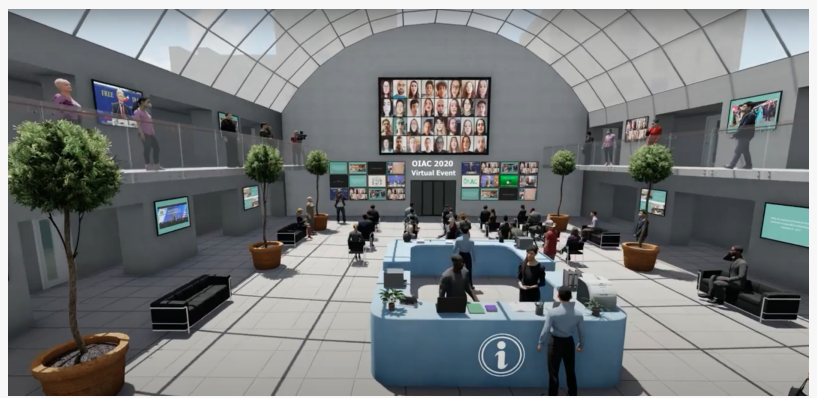

The virtual conference will call on the international community to step up pressure on the Iranian regime, activate the snap back mechanism, and reimpose all UN Security Council resolutions to impede the Iranian regime from further suppressing the Iranian people as well as we call for activation of the snap back mechanism, and reimpose all UNSC resolutions to impede the Iranian regime from further suppressing the Iranian people as well as threatening the world.”
