Play Montessori, a best-in-class preschool program in Fremont, Danville, and Dublin, California, is proud to announce major successes on its YouTube channel as the school provider beefs up its online learning opportunities amidst an unclear environment due to the pandemic. The company's YouTube channel can be found at <https://www.youtube.com/c/LearnAndPlayMontessoriSchool>. Among its success is that it has topped five hundred subscribers, nearly one hundred videos, and very high engagement when the videos are live on Facebook. The daily live Facebook trainings present online Montessori education and can be found at <https://www.facebook.com/learnandplaymontessorischool/live>.

The company offers remote, online learning taught the Montessori way at <https://www.learnandplaymontessori.com/remotelearningenroll/>.

"Our staff has really embraced YouTube as an educational vehicle for Montessori training," explained Harpreet Grewal, director of Learn and Play Montessori. "Parents of children from 18 months to 4 years of age can check out our YouTube videos at no cost and use them as tools to help them work with their child. No child should stop learning just because of the pandemic, and we're encouraging parents and children to work together to keep growing."

In addition to the remote learning page, interested residents can review the Montessori preschool informational page at <https://www.learnandplaymontessori.com/preschool/>. Once school reopens in California, Learn & Play will be offering not only enrollments for continuing parents and children but for new parents and children in communities as diverse as Fremont, Danville, Dublin and others in the San Francisco Bay Area. In fact, the company's Danville location is open on a limited basis for preschoolers.
