

PetCell Powered By GrowthCell Technology Launches on Amazon in Canada

PetCell, a gourmet chewable tablet designed to compliment & enhance any feeding program, is powered by GrowthCell technology and launches on Amazon in Canada.

ALBERTA, CANADA, May 21, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- GrowthCell Global Corp. is thrilled to announce its flagship pet product, PetCell, for sale on Amazon in Canada.

PetCell, is designed to compliment and enhance any feeding program and is powered by GrowthCell's (TM) patented technology. It is a natural food grade fast acting, gourmet chewable tablet that contains nutrients critical to maximizing a dog's health and lifespan, regardless of age or condition.

We are, equally, as thrilled that PetCell is registered with Health Canada Notifier Number H3R9 under the Veterinary Health Products Notification Program.

PetCell is the the first natural formula with classic amino acids, growth factors, vitamins, minerals, and infused ingredients producing therapeutic effects in the bodies of our pets, allowing them to receive total rejuvenation and anti-aging benefits. The growth factors in this formula replicate the way food was absorbed by their ancestors in the wild. In addition, the growth factors normalize or rebalance adrenal function to improve mood, energy levels, sleep quality, immune response and more...all the elements necessary for a dog to live a long, happy life.

"I discovered GrowthCell after searching for a product to help my aging dog's aches and pains. Two years ago he was barely able to get up to eat in the mornings and now he has less pain and more energy to run and play. I am so excited that our company is able to offer this product to every pet owner through Amazon. We know that our chewable tablets will help so many pets live a healthy, longer life," says Vernon Parkhurst, Managing Consultant and Visionary of GrowthCell Global Corp.

Glucosamine and EVA (Elk Velvet Antler) are often given to dogs to help with joints, pain and anxiety and PetCell is an innovative alternative.
