Cassandra McMann. McMann selected Hunting of Men as a must-read book on her book blog, Cassandra M’s Place. McMann wrote that in Hunting of Men “you get the mystery and so much more while not wanting to put it down. The character build up and story line is on point and it is perfect for a cozy day read.” The book would be an excellent summer read or ideal for mystery lovers who are celebrating May as Mystery Book Month. Additionally, LoRusso is running a nationwide contest that the reader who leaves the most original and creative review on Amazon of Hunting of Men, Mystery book series will have a character named after them in an upcoming LoRusso book.

“I am very pleased that Hunting of Men of Men has been recognized by a renowned book reviewer such as Cassandra McMann,” said Lance LoRusso. “This book and future books in the series will take readers into the world of law enforcement, crime, and mystery in riveting true-life style that is based upon my law enforcement career and stories recounted to me by other brave men and women who wear the blue.”

In Hunting of Men, LoRusso draws upon his diverse law enforcement background that saw him work the street, serve as a trainer, hostage negotiator, and an investigator. The book launches the career of central character, Johnny Till who will be the key character in all the Blue Mystery books. The book’s title, Hunting of Men, is drawn from Ernest Hemingway’s quote, “There is no hunting like the hunting of man, and those who have hunted armed men long enough and liked it, never care for anything else thereafter.” The mystery in Hunting of Men focuses upon a cold case murder.

Johnny Till is a force to be reckoned with as a new homicide detective for the Lawler County Police Department. As tradition demands, on his first day on the job, Till pulls a cold case file to investigate. The file in question is one that has haunted the department and community for years: the cold-blooded murder of Officer Michael Dunlap, gunned down in the black of night some twenty years earlier.

Now, in order to solve the murder and heal the victims left behind, Till must reopen old wounds and retrace the final days of Dunlap's life. The journey will lead him down a rabbit hole to a darker, more sinister conspiracy, one that threatens to steal the lives of children around the world. In order to close this cold case, Till must not only come into his new role as a homicide detective, but face his own fears to truly become a hunter of men.

Parallax, written to provide engaging as well as accurate entertainment, is a series of fictional stories based on the harsh realities faced by law enforcement officers in the performance of their duties and stories recounted to LoRusso by officers over the years. Peacemaking was LoRusso's first entry into the world of fiction, follows the journey of a police officer, Scotty Painter, in the aftermath of a shooting.
