Transformation in packaging plays a crucial role in this growth of the food & beverage market. Easily moldable and customizable packaging system has been launched, which is providing traction to not just take-outs but to food delivery business as well. This has been coupled by rapidly increasing urbanization and industrialization. A shift in lifestyle can be witnessed owing to such changes. Time restraint is one of them. That is why a lot of people are now looking for ready-to-eat foods or for joints that deliver foods to home.

North America and Europe are gaining the most due to the high expenditure capacity and technological integration. However, the APAC market is also expected to play a crucial role in taking the food and beverages sector ahead. Hike in disposable income and an exposure to the world cuisine are expected to make astonishing changes of the food and beverage industry.
