"TAG Heuer holds a special place in our heart because it's one of the coolest luxury watch brands out there," explained Ron Gordon, proprietor of Ron Gordon Watch Repair. "We're excited to put our commentary on this announcement, which shows how the brand is looking towards the future even amidst the uncertainties posed by the current Pandemic. As the world turns, TAG Heuer will be out there again, racing, and we're hoping a few of our customers score one of these limited edition watches."TAG Heuer

It explains, for example, that this limited-edition watch bears all the familiar hallmarks of the classic Monaco style, though it has been differentiated from others foremost by its red-and-white colorway, with its various commemorative accents, which is a contrast to the classical model's all-blue dial. The watch has the 39-mm square case common to the Monaco, with right-side-integrated pushers and crown; historical caliber 11 models often use a left-mounted crown instead.
