

Cloud Payments To Unveil Digital Commerce Solution

Launches mobile digital commerce platform to address the new normal

AUSTIN, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, June 1, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Cloud Payments, operator of The Cloud Payments Network, today announced the upcoming release of its new Digital Currency platform called Fundz. Fundz enables consumers and businesses to transition from legacy payments to advanced, contactless transactions suitable for the global new normal and the Digital Economy in which consumers and merchants interact efficiently and securely.

Our new Fundz platform is the culmination of many years of experience and innovation.”

Mike Love, CEO at Cloud Payments

“Cloud Payments has been a pioneer and leader in Digital Transformation of the global legacy payments system and our new Fundz platform is the culmination of many years of experience and innovation. We are very excited to begin Private Beta testing of our Share.Fundz product and look forward to the full launch later this year.” says Mike Love, CEO at Cloud Payments and 35 year veteran of the industry.

COVID-19 is having a major impact on the payments industry as people continue to worry about handling cash and touching credit-card terminals. Cloud Payments’ introduction of Fundz addresses those concerns while delivering additional digital capabilities and features for consumers and merchants.
