The aim is to leverage the power of Amazon in the current COVID -19 situation. Despite a huge impact on the world's economy, Amazon has managed to increase its customer base and annual revenue.

Since mid-March, when the COVID-19 situation started, Amazon's stocks grew from $1,676 to $2,442! That's 46% growth in 2 and half months - in the middle of a major health and financial crisis!

To make it a big opportunity for people who got affected, Matt and Jason, the creators of ASM, decided to update their program into brand new training. It contains 100% fresh content, videos, and a mentor program.

They have realized that this is the right time ever to start selling products on Amazon - and profit big.
