

Simultaneous with Khomeini's death anniversary, defiant youth target centers of repression in Tehran and other cities

PARIS, FRANCE, June 5, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- While the security situation in the cities has increased these days due to Khomeini's death anniversary, and at the height of public discontent against the regime's incompetence, plunder, and repression, the defiant youth, outraged over the current situation, set fire to the centers of repression and plunder of the clerical regime in various cities, demonstrating to the regime the prospects of protests and the mullahs' downfall. Some of these activities include:

Isfahan - Torching the entrances of anti-human Basij centers in different areas, setting fire to the entrance of Khomeini Educational and Scientific Complex affiliated to the center of plunder and theft, known as "Martyr's Foundation," as well as targeting the plunder and corruption foundation affiliated to the regime Supreme Leader
