“With all the craziness now happening around the world, it is important we get back to something normal --- HAVING FUN with family and friends”, says Ron Romens, CEO of ERM. “With all of the concerns about Covid-19 and the mandated lockdowns we were concerned about whether or not we would even be allowed to open this year”, adds Romens. “It is a credit to both the local and state government of Texas, who reached out to us early and allowed us to develop safety procedures and operational protocols that would best assure the safety of our guests, their constituents”. Ron adds with a smile, “there is nothing more enjoyable than a great day on the water and we invite you to come on out relax and have some fun”.
