There could not be a more important time to relaunch FSC. It was in studying causes of the Great Depression that FSC founder Edward R. Dewey first noticed verifiable cycles in the market."

Dr. Richard Smith, Chairman of the Board and CEO of FSC

"There could not be a more important time to relaunch FSC," said Dr. Richard Smith, Chairman of the Board and CEO of FSC. "It was in studying causes of the Great Depression that FSC founder Edward R. Dewey first noticed verifiable cycles in the market. After several years of dwindling engagement, a new leadership team led by Dr. Smith has reinvigorated the Board, reestablished the Foundation as a tax-exempt 501

(c)(3) educational institution, organized the Foundation's extensive archives and rebranded and updated the website, which now features a cloud-based, cycles analysis tool.

During the week of June 22-26, from 4-6 pm EDT, one-hour presentations will feature prominent experts, including:
