

Event Planner, Fashion Designer, Author, Motivational Speaker...David Tutera Launches Mentorship Program

Learn and listen from David Tutera...and get ready to be the best version of you!

MALIBU, CA, USA, June 12, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Over the course of three decades of planning and designing events throughout the world, David Tutera has made it his goal to stand out amongst the crowded event industry. He has planned events for A-Listers like Prince Charles, Nancy Reagan, Elton John, Zendaya, Jennifer Lopez and plenty more. David realized, after all of these years, that it was time to share all that he had experienced and learned with others. "This Mentorship program is what I wish I had had earlier in my career. With no guidance, no insight, no business education and no direction, I had to learn by trial and error", says David, "and I made so many mistakes!"

David takes great pride in bringing information, knowledge and insight to the event industry. Sharing a common passion, which is making others happy through planning and designing CELEBRATIONS, the DAVIDTUTERA Mentorship program will help participants to learn, grow their business and increase their confidence not just in this industry, but within themselves.

All of this is possible, and the right mentor can support you to get there”

David Tutera

It takes a special skill set to plan amazing events...having an eye for details, holding the vision for the event, coordinating vendors, logistics, and attendees, keeping an eye on the budget, and trouble-shooting a seemingly infinite number of little things that could go wrong. And on top of all of that, it takes a whole other skill set to run a business that sells event planning services, from marketing to pricing services to enrolling clients and managing their expectations, to hopefully soliciting referrals and repeat business. To be successful as an event planning professional, BOTH are required.

One of the most effective strategies for creating the results wanted in life is to seek out a mentor who has been there, done that, and can help dramatically shorten the learning curve and the path to success. That's why David created the DAVIDTUTERA Mentorship Program. In This 12-Month Immersion, David will conduct monthly live training calls, monthly group mentoring calls, provide private online support for networking, a library of recordings of all trainings, resources and vendor directories, and more.

Just a taste of what participants will have the opportunity to learn: the top 5 Secrets to attracting high-end clients, how to create an irresistible proposal, best practices for creating event timelines, how to gracefully handle challenging clients and understanding the role of being a successful event planner. "All of this is possible, and the right mentor can support you to get there", states David. You want to feel confident and successful, stand out in this crowded industry, and be well-compensated for your services. Fortunately, you're not alone..."You Don't Have to Figure It All Out for Yourself!"
