Solutions that were shared at the Civility360 Town Hall Meeting:

These kind of forums help bring the community together from all walks of life with community leaders as well as government leaders to identify problems and create solutions through civil dialog”

Dr. Clyde Rivers Founder of I Change Nations

Business Civility Prof. Vernet A. Joseph

1. Embrace Equality in diversity. Everyone treated with respect and dignity!
2. Develop a culture and dialogue that promotes proper people treatment, and civility in action.
3. Champion Civility within the business, education, and governmental rank structures.
4. Develop an Office of Civility (Liaison) that has authority to govern acts of incivility at all levels. Monitoring the civility temperature/pulse of an organization. To maximize productivity and spot cancerous behaviors before getting out of hand. Educating the workforce on civility communication and dynamics.

5. Embrace, participate, and celebrate National Productive Business Civility Day annually on June 13th. "The most powerful commodity and currency for business is the value of people, their ideas and solutions." - Prof. Vernet A. Joseph

Dr. Dan Justice

The solution to racism lies within each race. They can't be imposed from the outside. Ultimately, each race has to decide what its identity will be. The solutions begin with honor and encouraging the right actions taken within those communities. "Vision will always be the basis for our actions. If you're not responding to your own vision, you're reacting to someone else's."

Dr. Sonny Lara

Engage people right where they are. Help people and they will be willing to help you. "People don't care how much you know, until they know how much your care."

Dr. Marquez Hughley

1. Unacceptable - We must not let up / Mission focused

2. We need ink! - Change the rules, laws, etc

3. Unity - We need to do this together (All people)

"Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere." - Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Apostle Quint Burks

We need to do away with the systems (such as the union arbitrators) that make it impossible to get rid of even repeat offenders in authority. There should be a limit set on infractions that automatically remove you from office or position. All verified infraction should require some type of additional training. "Be the change you want to see in the world. If you can't walk it out, then your words are meaningless."
