If you can dream it, we can build it!

In collaboration with MindEdge Learning, Bright Apps LLC is announcing the opening of their training center. The course selection has been chosen to reflect the expertise of the team. With the changing dynamics of the workforce we realize how unique and important the impact of sharing skills Bright Apps has in addition to being an established remote team.

> We take pride in being experts in technology and leaders in disruptive technologies. There is a lot we can bring to the table in helping share knowledge of how we have been so successful as a team."

"We take pride in being the experts in technology and leaders in disruptive technologies. There is a lot we can bring to the table in helping share knowledge of how we have been so successful as a team. It was clearly the next step to be able to offer an education piece to what we do." CEO, Greg McGregor

"The BrightApps Training Center is an innovative approach to learning and we are thrilled to be part of this exciting initiative. I am confident that our high-quality online certificates and courses will be well received by the BrightApps community of learners." Brad Neuenhaus, Chief Business Officer, MindEdge, Inc.

About MindEdge Learning

MindEdge is a learning house with four different doors. Inside these doors, the rooms of our house are all constructed with the same high-quality materials, expertly designed, and learner-approved. MindEdge's for-credit courses and student success products serve institutions of higher education.

MindEdge's mission is to improve the way the world learns. Since our founding by Harvard and MIT educators in 1998, we have served some two million learners.
