

Brian Younker Announces Scholarship Recipient

The Cynthia Marie Younker Scholarship Program recently closed with the funds awarded to the successful recipient, Grace Piotrowski

TINLEY PARK , ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, June 11, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Brian Younker is proud to announce that the 2020 Cynthia Marie Younker Scholarship Program has closed and that the funds have been awarded to the successful recipient of Tinley Park High School. For several years, Brian Younker has been running the scholarship program to honor his late sister.

As a local, serial entrepreneur, Brian Younker is also a philanthropist that is active within his community in Tinley Park, Illinois.

The recipient of the 2020 Cynthia Marie Younker Scholarship Program is Grace Piotrowski.

Annually, the Cynthia Marie Younker Scholarship Program provides $1,000 USD to a female graduating senior from Tinley Park High School.

The scholarship is awarded based on the applicant's leadership, volunteerism, academic focus, participation in extracurricular activities, participation in at least one sport at Tinley Park High School, and recommendations from school representatives.

"I am proud to be able to regularly run this scholarship program on behalf of my sister," says Brian Younker.

"It was always important to her to support the future generation of women and I am happy to honor her memory."
