PLYMOUTH, MINNESOTA, UNITED STATES, June 16, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- RexVid, the market-leading app for creating connected video memories announced today the completion of National Cap Toss Day 2020. RexVid's goal was to give graduating seniors across the U.S. the chance to record their cap toss and be included in a combined video.

"With social distancing cancelling graduation ceremonies, we wanted to give seniors a chance to put their own twist on the graduation experience."

said Jamie Page, RexVid's CEO. "Our app was built for times like these. It gives participants the opportunity to join other grads from all over to be part of something really memorable, and we'll back next year with our second annual National Cap Toss to do it again!"
