

Entrepreneur and Real Estate Lead Investor Randal Gindi Featured in Exclusive Thrive Global Interview

Entrepreneur Randal Gindi discusses how he balances a highly successful business career while also finding the time to prioritize his mental and physical health

BROOKLYN, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, June 18, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Randal Gindi was recently interviewed by highly popular interview platform Thrive Global to discuss his extensive business success while providing strategies for balancing personal and professional obligations.

With extensive business experience in a wide range of industries, Randal Gindi attributes most of his success to his hard work and dedication. As the Founder of Wallner Media Group, Randal understands the role self-motivation plays in sustainability. While not everyone is destined to become an entrepreneur, he advises individuals currently navigating the business landscape to put in the time and effort, as difficult situations are inevitable.

During the interview, Randal also highlights the importance of both physical and mental health when it comes to putting your best foot forward.

"You can't put forward an adequate amount of work if you don't have a healthy body and mind" states Randal, stressing that health and wellness are vital to success in all areas of life.
