

Sean Story, Premier Cybersecurity/IT Consultant, Launching New Technology Focused Podcast, "The Sean Story Show"

New ~30-minute episodes will be released each Tuesday and are available to listen to on main podcast sites like Apple, Spotify, Stitcher, RSS Feed, and more.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, June 29, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IT and Cybersecurity Expert Sean Story has created a much needed weekly podcast in a category of its own that Story calls "Personal Technology" to provide easy to understand answers to the challenging questions about technology and specifically how we use it in our everyday lives.

On each weekly episode of The Sean Story Show, Sean answers three technology questions from his listeners, discusses an article on the topic of personal or family technology use, recommends a technology tip of the week, and puts it all in context with a tidbit of tech history in the segment "This Week In Tech History".

"Let's face it- technology has made its way into nearly every aspect of our lives," said Story. "All of this technology can be confusing, stressful, and overwhelming. As an IT and Cybersecurity Consultant, I get asked questions everyday about how individuals and families should best use and manage their technology. I created The Sean Story Show to provide easy to understand answers to those challenging questions about technology and how we use it in our lives. If you use a smartphone or a laptop, this show is for you. I invite you to join the conversation about your technology and listen in to our 30-minute podcast episodes released every Tuesday on all major podcast platforms- It's educational, easy to understand, and downright entertaining!"
