Boutique, an online women's clothing and accessories boutique, will be launching its e-commerce website on Thursday, July 16. Describing its style as tropically-inspired, modern, and effervescent, Coco Vida is thrilled to bring a fresh take to the boutique industry. Jessica Nicklos, owner of Coco Vida Boutique, says, "I've been shopping at online boutiques for a while now, and I appreciate the small business feel and the personal selection of the items. Since I've loved fashion for as long as I can remember, I felt this was the perfect next step for me. I'm a former project manager and event planner, so the organization and business skills necessary to manage an inventory-based business are also in my interests and skill set," says Nicklos.

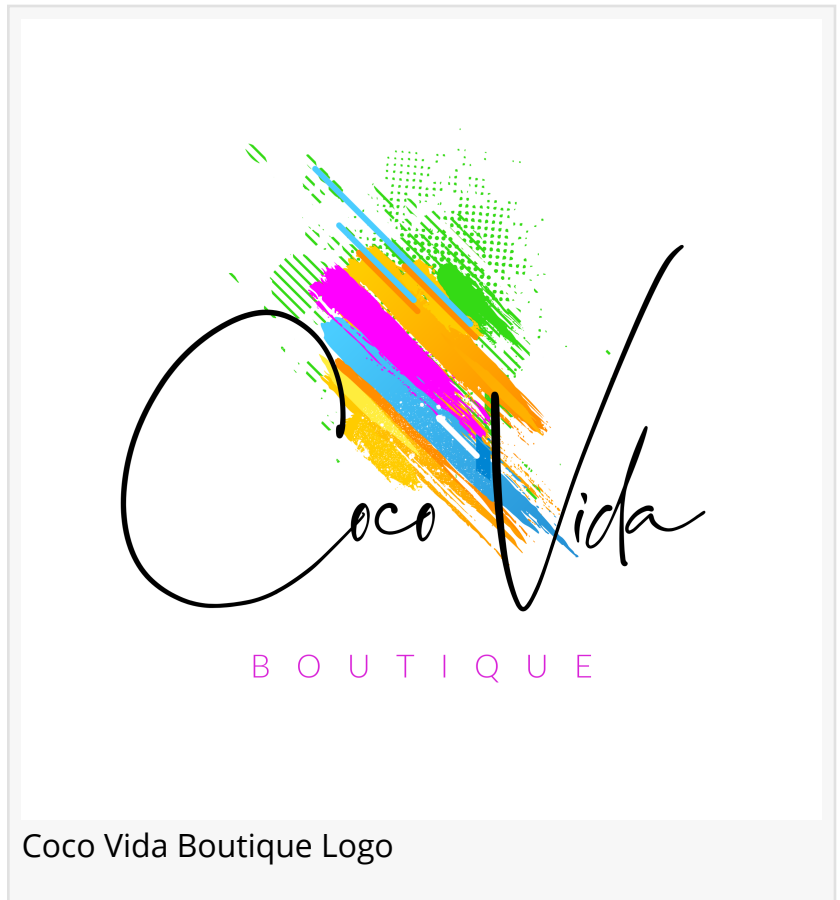

The boutique will be stocking tops, bottoms, rompers and jumpsuits, dresses, swimwear, loungewear, jewelry, and accessories. Styles will range from eclectic to athleisure, with everyday and special occasion options. "We hope that every customer can find something that speaks to them. Our store will feature some really unique items, along with everyday choices that are more comfortable and casual. We like to say that Coco Vida Boutique clothing is 'stand-out style,' so we really try to choose items with a little something extra, even if they aren't necessarily fancy," says Nicklos. Clothing and accessory pricing will range from $20-125, and all items can be purchased online and through social media channels. Jessica Nicklos says, "I truly can't wait to bring Coco Vida to the world very soon. The unique pieces are carefully curated, and I hope that our customers love them." Coco Vida Boutique will launch online on Thursday, July 16 at www.cocovidaboutique.com.
