Paladin Protective Systems Launches New Bid Market Inside Sales Team to Improve Communication to Contractors

VALLEY VIEW, OHIO, USA, July 7, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Paladin Protective Systems Launches New Bid Market Inside Sales Team to Improve Communication

Created to improve communications with Electrical and General Contractors

Indeed, the current Covid 19 situation has created unexpected challenges to most businesses. This is especially true for contractors in the bid market space, where a number of factors have impacted day to day operations.

Having established a great reputation over the last 30 years for developing the best solutions for contractors, Paladin Protective Systems announces their latest support team designed to improve communications with contractors across the state of Ohio. The new team consists of a dedicated Inside Sales Representative, and Inside Sales Coordinator, focusing on the contractor market.

A representative of Paladin Protective Systems said this will be a great benefit to contractors who already rely on Paladins design and installation teams to provide quality solutions for Life Safety, Security, and Professional Audio Video Systems. The new team will provide contractors with the timely communications they need.

Paladin licensed designers and certified technicians have earned an excellent reputation for developing custom quotes and installations. Paladin has been a Premier Honeywell Notifier Dealer for Twenty-Five Years.
