

Can sound heal? Three experts reveal their thoughts in a new Awake TV Network show "From Cacophony to Coherence"

Dr. Kathleen Riley, Howard Martin and Jonathan Goldman join Jennifer K. Hill for an Awake TV Network episode on coherence in music

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, July 1, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rocker turned HeartMath Executive Vice President, Howard Martin, and Jonathan Goldman, Healing Sounds pioneer®, team up with Dr. Kathleen Riley for an episode on Awake TV Network to discuss their respective research on how sound heals.

Martin discusses his evolution from being a drummer in a rock band to analyzing how sound could be used to heal. Goldman shares stories from his 40+ years of studying sound and emphasizes the importance of allowing imperfections to occur in music. Dr. Riley draws from her research from her documentary "Intention: The Power of the Heart," and discovering how coherence causes music to sound differently to the audience.

Dr. Kathleen Riley

"From Cacophony to Coherence" aims to explore the importance of coherence in all areas of our lives, and how noise can become coherent with the right intention. The idea for this show emerged from Dr. Kathleen Riley's research on coherence with an intimate Facebook music group she created during COVID-19 to help support musicians with fulfilling their life's purpose.

About Kathleen Riley

Kathleen Riley is a visionary, highly intuitive and passionate in her mission to help performing artists connect more deeply with their heart's intelligence and create coherence through their music and sound. She combines her expertise as a professional musician and extensive education and training in post-doctoral studies in neurophysiology and psychology, as well as certifications in biofeedback, with a passion to see others thrive. Kathleen's journey led her to become involved with the HeartMath Institute and go on to receive several certifications.

Her latest research study conducted with the HeartMath Institute explored the effects of a shared heart intention among members of a string quartet on the musicians and audience members. The research was filmed and produced as a documentary, Intention: The Power of the Heart.

In response to COVID-19, she has created the Global Coherent Musicians Community, designed

Jennifer K. Hill, Host

Awake TV Network

to bring musicians, scientists and researchers together to understand and explore how our intentions and sound frequencies affect the global field.
