Summary: -

Global Nutricosmetics Market is anticipated to exhibit a CAGR of 5.51% to reach USD 8,349.2 Million by 2025. Nutricosmetics are nutritional additives used to care for skin, nails, and hair natural beauty. They are obtained through the blend of nutrition and cosmetics that supports rejuvenation and protection. Due to the increasing population of the nutricosmetics market various food and beverage production companies are emerging into the cosmetics industry that becomes a major market driving factor during the review period.

The global nutricosmetics market is estimated to be attractive opportunities for the vendor's active in emerging countries owing to the increasing count of products targeted at men and growing consumer awareness regarding the correlation between nutrition and beauty. The increasing trend of healthy aging, especially among women, is a major factor propelling the growth of the global nutricosmetics market. The global nutricosmetics market is estimated to expand at a significant rate owing to the rising elderly population with a focus on healthy aging and the aged population in developed economies, and the inclination of consumers towards nutricosmetics. Additionally, the major players operating in the global nutricosmetics market are focusing on product launches and strengthening their footprints across the globe. However, the major restraining factor of the market is the lack of awareness of nutricosmetics and their health benefits.
